

THE GRANDMA PROJECT: A Record of Oral Histories

- for Kindergarten up

From Kindergarten to grade nine this full or partial school residency teaches children interviewing and writing skill while recording the diversity of two generations. In the end the Grandma Project results in a memory book with chapters and illustrations from each individual child.